

i saw your face again
i want to take you home
your lips a sorceress
while set on fire and said
i cried just like a child ill never be alone

ohh it is the final flame you burned me up again

green eyes, dangerously treason in their meaning

praise
to Aine'sd spell

oh, in the magic, we burn we burn we burn oh, in the magic, forever, we burn
