

We can see through fire
And we can touch the flame

I'm unholy and dire
A harmony of pain

And oh, love, there is a stranger waiting
And oh, my love, silent and endless craving
Oh, love, it is inevitable
The light, the power, the darkest hour,
Forever over and over and over again

Behold a golden moon
Become a shadow with me
Behold a golden moon
Become a shadow with me
Behold a golden moon
Become a shadow with me
Behold the golden moon
Into the babel with me

We can see through fire
And we can touch the flame
I've only one desire
I've got to speak your name

And love, there is a stranger waiting
Forever over and over

Follow me tonight
In the night

Follow me to life
In the night
